

Last Shadow Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions

To secure a hunt date 100% is due at time of booking. This will secure your dates, and allows us to plan and coordinate your hunt prior to arrival.

Last Shadow reserves the right to reschedule the hunt at any time. As an aviation tourism/hunting business, we are subject to weather changes, unforeseen flight restrictions, unforeseen maintenance, etc. While infrequent, these issues sometimes require rescheduling.

Cancellations due to weather or unscheduled maintenance are not subject to refund and will be rescheduled.

Refund Policy

Our policy is to reschedule your hunt for a date that suits you in the future. We will continue to reschedule until you complete your hunt.

Refunds are by exception, in extreme cases only.
